

NAB had the opportunity to offer these services to the public, but alas they failed. XM Radio offers a great service to the traveling public and since it is satellite, we know we will get the signal. Keep up the good work XM. It's great listening to all your channels.